Turkey Guilty Of An Overt Act

LONGWORTH AGAIN VENTS HIS SPLEEN ON MUSCLE SHOALS

(International News Service)

Washington, June 19.—The formal contract entered into by the war department with the American Air Nitrate corporation for the construction of the government nitrate plant at Muscle Shoals was bitterly attacked by Representative Nick Longworth of Ohio in the house today.

"I understand the department is about to enter similar contracts with the same concern for the construction of two nitrate plants in Ohio. I want to go on record now as protesting against it. The American Air Nitrate corporation is to receive 3-1/2 per cent. of the entire amount expended by the government at Muscle Shoals merely for superintending the construction work," said Longworth.

"It is a corporation with only $1,000 capital. On the government expenditure of $45,000,000 it will receive about $1,000,000 yearly for its work of supervision. And that is not all. The contract further sets out that the corporation shall receive $1,250,000 per year for supervising production while the war lasts."

Longworth protested that it was not the intention of congress in passing appropriations for nitrate plants that they should be government-owned and operated. He again brought the whole Muscle Shoals project under fire, asserting that while high power is needed for the nitrate process to be used there, no water power will be available for four or five years. "A succession of elaborate dams must be built before the government will receive a single bit of water power," he said. "In the meantime, part of the power will be generated by steam and the remainder will be transmitted a distance of 9 miles with the government paying a very high rate."

Strange And Weston Lease McGee Hotel

HUNTSVILLE HOSTELRY TO BE OPERATED IN CONNECTION WITH HOTEL ECHOLS.

A. W. Strange announced today that the McGee hotel at Huntsville had been leased for a term of years by the firm of Strange & Weston, of which he is the senior member, and will be operated in conjunction with the Hotel Echols at Decatur, of which they have had control for some months. Mr. Strange will leave for Huntsville this afternoon to take charge of the preliminaries incident to assuming possession on July 1.

The McGee is one of the best-known and most admirably equipped hotels in the northern section of the state. It has private telephone and running hot and cold water in every room, and was recently improved at considerable expense. Under the new management it will be conducted on both the European and American plan, which will prove especially pleasing to the traveling public.

By operating the two hotels the firm expects to be able to serve the commercial salesmen who make this territory more effectively than ever before.

Prior to coming to Decatur to resume charge of the Hotel Echols, Mr. Strange had been for a number of years identified with the leading hosteleries of Chattanooga. In addition to a wide personal acquaintance he knows the inside workings of the hotel business to a nicety, and makes it a point to cater to every want of his guests. The cuisine of the McGee made especially attractive.

Washington, June 19.—Apparently an overt act that may result in a declaration of war against Turkey was reported to the state department today by American Minister Caldwell at Teheran, Persia. According to the dispatch the Turks had taken the city of Tabriz in Persia, where they had possession of the American and British consulates and sacked the American hospital which at the time was flying the Spanish flag.

The report is being investigated from every angle, and if found to be true a declaration of war on Turkey is expected to result.

DOUBLE WATCH ON WALTER HARDLEY

EVERY EFFORT BEING MADE TO PREVENT ESCAPE OF MAN CON- DEMNED TO DIE.

As the day nears when Walter Hardley, negro desperado, now in the Morgan county jail, must expiate the crime of murder upon the gallows, additional precautions are being taken to prevent the escape of the prisoner, one of the cleverest who ever matched wits with officers of the law. Hardley is sentenced to hang at Cullman on June 28 for the murder of J. T. Jones, a prominent merchant of Hanceville.

The cell in which the man is confined is now searched every two days by Sheriff Forman and Deputy Beasley, who alone carry the keys to the cage. The prisoner continues his old tactics of hiding in his cell, and only this week was found concealed behind his blanket, suspended on the wall after another thrill had been sent through the men who are holding him captive.

Now that his final hour is approaching, the negro professes a readiness to die, claiming that he has made peace with his Maker. The officers, however, place no credence in Hardley's protestations and have redoubled their vigilance. Already he has made three attempts to break jail, once being apprehended after he had secured egress to the prison yard. He has twice escaped from Birmingham jails, once from the county road and once from the state contractors.

For more than six months Hardley had been confined in the county jail for safe keeping, and unless he makes his escape within the next few days Sheriff Forman will get credit for baffling the man's efforts to regain his freedom, a record that can be claimed by no other officer who has ever had him in custody.

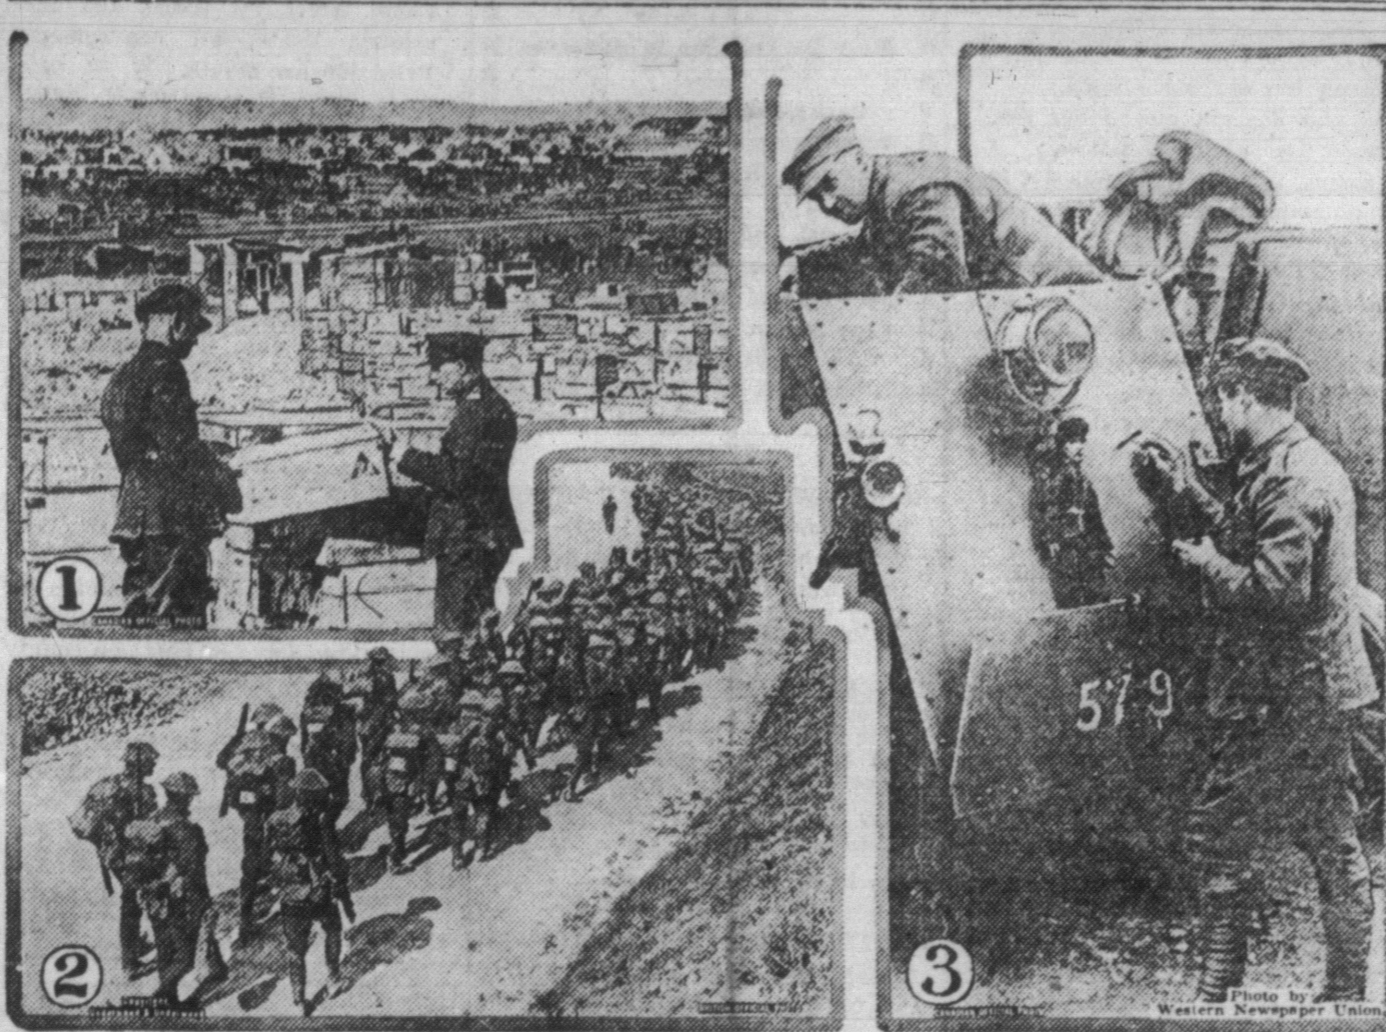

First Cotton Bloom of Season Shown Today

Raised at Eutopia, just east of Fairview on the farm owned by T. P. Gilchrist, Sam Dykes, a negro farmer, produced the first cotton bloom of the season to reach the Albany-Decatur Daily this morning. The seed was brought by Mr. Gilchrist from his plantation in Mississippi from which a fine grade of cotton is grown.

Burning Of Mess Hall Starts Wild Rumors Of Explosion

The burning of an old mess hall at Plant No. 2 at South Florence last night was responsible for the circulation of rumors here to the effect that the big nitrate plant had been blown up by pro-German agents with heavy loss of life. The fire was discovered about 11 o'clock and spread so rapidly that two white men were burned to death. They were workmen employed at the plant.

Several other men who were sleeping in the old mess hall, which had been converted into a dormitory, had narrow escapes.

Two Recruits Are Inducted Into Ranks Of Toil By Mayor Nelson

In conformity with the American war policy of "work or fight," Mayor James A. Nelson of Decatur is backing up the military authorities by a campaign against loafers, using the vagrancy statute as the weapon of his offensive. Two young white men, J. D. Speck and Sawyers, were the first to enlist in the ranks of toil. Not however, until they had been entertained as the city's guests at the jail and had made a determined effort to escape from that hospitable institution.

The two young men, each about 20 years of age, were arrested Monday on a vagrancy charge. Monday night they attempted to gain their liberty by breaking up an iron cot in their cell, which they used to pry the prison bars apart. One of them was about half way through when discovered by Night Policeman Ed Thompson. The youths were arraigned this morning before Judge Eugene Ferris of the Decatur inferior court on the charge of destroying city property and fined $5 each. Then they were tried before Mayor Nelson on the vagrancy charge and assessed a like amount. Fines and costs were suspended when the prisoners promised to go to work and to remain at work.

4 Minute Speakers Needed; Will You Be a Volunteer

Volunteers of 4-minute speakers are urged by government authorities to drive the War Savings Stamps campaign to a successful conclusion.

President Morrell of the Decatur Boosters is the 4-minute chairman for Decatur and will be glad to furnish the data and suggestion necessary. Mr. Morrell asks for volunteers of automobiles to make trips to various school houses, churches and other places where 4-minute men may deliver addresses at points in the county. W. R. Shelton is the Albany chairman of 4-minute men and requests any one who will do this patriotic duty to advise him and appointments will be made.

American Steamer Chased By U-Boats

(International News Service)

An Atlantic Port, June 19.—An American steamer carrying 80 passengers arrived here today from a Cuban port. In the course of the voyage she narrowly escaped striking a floating mine and was pursued when off the coast of Charleston, S. C., by a U-boat. At the time, it was said, three other vessels were racing for port at full steam. Twenty minutes after the steamer received its first warning the submarine was reported to have sunk a British barque.

Bone Dry Leaders No Longer Agree

(International News Service)

Washington, June 19.—The prospect of immediate bone-dry prohibition throughout the country for the period of the war dwindled today when dissent broke out in the ranks of the senate "drys" over the Jones amendment.

A canvass of the senate today indicated that it was doubtful if the Jones amendment would receive a majority vote, despite the fact that the Shepherd resolution was supported by more than two-thirds the senators.

A LAME EXCUSE.

(International News Service)

Washington, June 19.—The U. S. shipping board today appealed to congress to kill the Jones bone-dry nation-wide prohibition amendment because it would seriously cripple the shipping program and thwart America's efforts to overcome the submarine menace. It was declared that the enactment of bone-dry prohibition at this time would seriously reduce the efficiency of workmen at the shipyards.

SUDDEN BLOW ON 20-MILE FRONT IS MET BY FRENCH

Enemy Captures Some Ground But Is Thrown Back By Counter Assaults

THE ITALIANS HOLD AUSTRIANS IN CHECK

Attempts To Drive South Are Vigorously Met And No Substantial Gains Made

Two great battles in the two eastern theatres of war have been raging during the past 24 hours. While the Austrians were driving against the Italians along the Piave on the southwestern front, the Germans suddenly launched a powerful effort against the shell-wrecked city of Rheims in France. The attack, which was preceded by a violent cannonade, was carried out by three divisions over a front of more than 20 miles extending in the form of a semi-circle.

(International News Service)

Rome, June 19.—"The enemy continues his pressure along the mountain front and in the region of Montello," Premier Orlando announced in a chamber of deputies shortly before midnight. "The enemy's efforts to cross the Piave have all been in vain. By counter attacks we have taken several hundred prisoners and many positions."

(International News Service)

London, June 19.—The British attacked and recaptured a post from the Germans near Vieux Berquin on the Flanders front, the war office announced.

(International News Service)

Rome, June 19.—General outlines of the battle front have remained unchanged, said a semi-official statement which has just been issued here. Thrusts by the Italians and their allies in the Asiago sector and Monte Trappa have restored the positions as they were before the Austrian offensive was started last Saturday.

(International News Service)

Washington, June 19.—American patrolling parties continue to meet with success, according to Gen. Pershing's communique, made public today. American patrols crossed the Marne and captured many prisoners.

(International News Service)

Paris, June 19.—Following a violent bombardment on a 20-mile front between Virgny and Ft. Lapomalle, the Germans began a drive against Rheims last night, the war office announced today. Prisoners taken by the French said that three divisions, 36,000 men, were taking part in the assault and that orders had been issued to "take Rheims at any cost."

The Germans penetrated a wood north of Ft. Lapomalle but the French counter attacked and threw them back to their old positions. Everywhere the Germans were repulsed.

(International News Service)

London, June 19.—The Austrian battleship Wien and Erzherzog Ferdinand Max have been sunk, the Italian ministry of marine is quoted as saying in the newspaper Epoca, said a dispatch from Rome, on the same day that the Austrian dreadnaughts Szvant Istvan was sunk off Pola. Wreckage of another battleship was seen 40 miles away.

Notes Increase In Salt Brick Sales

W. P. Gideon, Alabama and Florida representative of the Blackman Stock Remedy company of Chattanooga, makers of the famous "Blackman Salt Brick," was in the Twin Cities today. Mr. Gideon states that through the use of a few small ads in the Daily he has increased the sale of his product materially, and that he is now spending upwards of $100 a month for advertising exclusive of that being done by the company. He finds a combination of newspaper advertising and personal letters to be very effective and is now selling more salt bricks than at any time in the history of the business.

MILLIONS MADE BY FEE GRAFTERS

(International News Service)

Washington, June 19.—Many government employees and politicians have been implicated in the contingent fee graft scandal by the interception of code messages, according to officials of the department of justice this afternoon. Voluntary confessions of guilt in taking contingent fees for the placing of contracts have been received in large numbers by the department and many of the operators sought officials today to learn whether they would be prosecuted.

Papers seized here in Washington show that one firm landed contingent fee contracts approximating $10,000,000. Another firm had realized more than $100,000 in fees.

SECRETARY BAKER ANNOUNCES A NEW AMERICAN POLICY.

One of the healthiest war policies yet enunciated by Secretary Baker is that men who will not fight for America shall not reside here after the present world conflict is ended. Or in other words, that those who have only a material interest in the United States shall not be allowed to exercise their plucking privileges any longer.

The ruling resulted from the review by the secretary of war of a number of cases in which sentences ranging from 18 months to 20 years had been imposed by a court martial upon soldiers who refused to fight in our armies for no other reason than that they had relatives in the armies of the Beast. The court martial's findings were upheld in every instance, and Mr. Baker went further and suggested that legislation should be enacted which would make it possible to send these disloyal Americans back to the lands of their real loves when hostilities cease.

"In my judgment," said Secretary Baker's approval, "the sentences should be executed, and if after this war is over some process can be devised by which these entirely undesirable citizens can be returned to the countries of their preference, it would be highly desirable from the point of view of the United States."

"I have not the least doubt as to the propriety of the procedure in these cases, nor am I uncertain as to the correctness of the results reached."

"The soldiers in all the cases were either naturalized citizens of the United States or natives of the United States, born of parents from countries which the United States is now at war with, properly members of the army of the United States pursuant to the selective draft law. * * They were summoned before proper officers of the army and asked whether they would in fact fulfill their military obligations by fighting against Germany and Austria in Europe. They all answered they would not. * *

"There was the same snuffing on the part of some of the soldiers as to what they meant by their answers, and some long-winded refinements were undertaken to the effect that some of them were willing to fight Germans and Austrians generally, but would not fight their own relatives, although they offered no explanation of the process by which they were going to discover whether particular Germans and Austrians whom they were required to shoot at from long range happened to be related to them."

One of the prime benefits that will result from America's entry into the world war is the solidification of this republic. The hyphenate and the pro-foreigner, those who come across only to accumulate wealth and who leave their loyalty behind would become a menace to our institutions and to Liberty itself should they attain numerical ascendancy. The great "melting pot" heretofore has been capable of assimilating the millions of emigrants from Europe who have sought opportunity on this side the Atlantic. What Mr. Baker intends to do is to skim the melting pot and send the dross back to Germany. Only the refined metal is of value in building a great nation.

War Savings Certificate Stamp then affixed.

On ten days' notice to the postoffice the holder of War Savings Certificates will get back the money invested to up-together with interest. In other words, the War Savings Certificates are cash. In the case of Liberty Bonds the principal is not due for thirty years, and will not be paid until due. True, they are good collateral, but if one wishes to convert them into cash, he must pay a small discount, one amounting at this time to 2 per cent. It therefore remains that as a quick asset, convertible on short notice into cash to the amount invested with interest, the War Savings Certificates are the superior of any government security ever issued.

So in purchasing War Savings Stamps you make an investment, on which you may realize cash value and interest at any time. In addition you provide the government with funds to carry on the war and preserve the value of these and all other securities. They are your answer to the government's call. A model form of savings standing always for cash in hand when you need it and at the same time serving to whip the Hun is an ideal financial and patriotic opportunity.

FEW PERSONS REALLY HAPPY

Whatever the Cause, the Great Majority of People Fail to Make the Best of Their Lives.

The other night we chanced to ask an eminent physician of New York city his opinion as to the number of people who were truly happy. His rather dogmatic reply was:

"About one in a hundred."

And this was not the opinion of a pessimist, but of a most radical optimist. We wonder if this opinion is shared by others. It does not mean, of course, that ninety-nine people out of a hundred are deeply unhappy—that would be absurd. But there is no doubt that a great many people are quite unhappy a good deal of the time, perhaps not half the time, but enough rather to cloud their lives.

We should like to know the opinion of physicians generally. More and more people go to the doctors to tell them their troubles. The physician of today takes the place of the confessional of yesterday.

Then, too, there is the new application of psychology to the field of medicine—the so-called psycho-analysis, which is so rapidly taking its place as an important part, literally, of the medical pharmacopeia. This new science has given a wonderful insight into our subconscious selves and reveals how far that subconscious self really dominates our lives and determines the amount of happiness which we really get out of this confused welter of existence.—New York Tribune.

WRONG TO BE TOO SENSITIVE

Business Man Who Takes to Brooding Over Small Things Stands in His Own Light.

"Wagner, you've got ability," he cried, "but you'll never get anywhere in this world until you quit tearing yourself to pieces! I've watched you for the last three years; twice I've had it in mind to push you up a notch in the office, and every time I've passed you and picked some one else, because I know you aren't fit to handle other men. No man is fit to handle other men until he has learned to control himself. You can't; you're too blamed sensitive."

"Little setbacks break your heart. A letter of complaint comes in from some customer and you take it as a personal criticism, and lose a day's work brooding over it. You see me in conference with some of the other men, and you stab yourself, wondering why you weren't invited, and imagine that I have turned against you. You hear about some one who is making more money than you, and immediately all far fields look greener. You're a fairly useful cog in your present job, and it might put me to some annoyance to lose you. But you'll never hold a big job until you can forget your own petty self and learn to laugh when the world takes a crack at you. Hanged if I don't think sometimes it might be better if you were to get out and try your hand somewhere else."—American Magazine.

Bulb Culture Once a Craze.
Bulb culture in Europe has had a particularly interesting history. The tulip, for instance, has been popular in European gardens for about three centuries, and prior to that time it was cultivated for many centuries by the Turks. Near the close of the sixteenth century the tulip was introduced into Holland and the popularity of the plant increased so rapidly that by 1634 it had become a craze. For a number of years the wildest speculation prevailed in tulips and enormous prices were paid for rare bulbs. Five hundred dollars was not an unusual amount to pay for a choice tulip, and such bulbs as the famous Semper Augustus brought more than $5,000 apiece.

FURS COMMAND HIGH PRICES

More Than Ever Are Pelts of Animals
Coming to Be Considered Articles of Luxury.

The high cost of living has a desirable running mate in the high cost of ornamental wearing apparel which has suddenly dawned in another article climbing up to a price never dreamed of in the luxury of adorning one's self with a pelt of some favorite animal skillfully made up for the trade.

For instance, the coyote has jumped in a raw state to as high as $10 and not lower than $6. The detestable skunk of odiferous renown, also clips $5.50 for his covering, while the wildcat is now in a rating as high as $12.50 and as low as $7. The little fox goes for $4.50, and even the jack rabbit leaps away at 7 cents per pelt.

The above prices were given in a circular received by J. H. Drew, and came from a St. Louis furrier house. The legal bounty in Arizona is only $2 for the coyote and lesser sums for the fox and wildcat. In consequence, the county is receiving at the present time but a limited number of pelts, and the animal department is practically abolished. Meatless and wheatless days ordained will soon include hideless days, unless peace negotiations are soon realized.—Prescott Journal-Miner.

Y. M. C. A. WORKERS ON ARMY TRANSPORTS

Y. M. C. A. Secretaries Now Accompany Troops From Home To The Camp And From Camp All The Way To The Boche Trenches

Y. M. C. A. secretaries have carried their work to the troops in transport days an announcement just received from the National War Council of the Y. M. C. A., and are now promoting systematic recreational, educational, social and religious program for the soldier boys en route by sea to France. With the sanction of the War Department each transport now carries one or two such secretaries whose function it is to do all that is possible to make the voyage both comfortable and enjoyable for the fighting men abroad.

Games are provided, musical and movie entertainments staged, magazines and books are supplied and writing paper is issued free to the men, the statement continues. "A report of a transport worker recently arrived shows that in his equipment there were such articles as a folding organ and song books, motion-picture equipment with 20 reels, pocket testaments, writing paper, boxing gloves, medicine ball, rope quilts, checkers, dominoes, Victrola and records and a Sonora machine."

"The appointment of transport secretaries completes the link of Y. M. C. A. work, which begins with the recruits in camp, continues through the training period, comes overseas on the transports and goes on in the camps in France all the way from the ports to the front line trenches. Transport secretaries are assigned to ships, and remain on their ships as does the crew."

Sends Battle Song of the Engineers

CLARENCE SHAFFER WRITES TO SISTER FROM BATTLE CREEK.
Decatur, Ala., June 13, 1918.
Editor of the Albany and Decatur
Daily:

Enclosed herewith is a copy of a letter and song from my brother who is with the Fifty-fifth Engineers. I wish it printed in the Albany-Decatur
Daily.

SUSIE SHAFFER.

Camp Custer, Co. F.
Battle Creek, Mich., June 10, 1918.
Dear Sister:

I just received a letter from you.
I sure was glad to hear from you all,
and glad to hear you are all well. It gives the "blues" away to get a letter like that from home. I am OK tonight. We took bayonet drill today.
I will write more next time as we are real busy—don't have time to write a very long letter. Write and tell me all the news.

I will send you all one of our songs about the engineers. I wish you could make Decatur ring with it.

Write as soon as you can as we may not be here much longer. I like this place just fine. I'm glad to get into this company of engineers. Hope Bob and Lee are well. Give all of the Decatur people my best regards.
Your Brother,
CLARENCE SHAFFER.

Keep away from the engineers.
Keep away from the engineers.
They will steal your heart.
At the very first start.
And you'll wonder, how in thunder
Their major does such twirling
With a baton that's ever whirling.
But he never loses step,
And his band is full of pep.
Just the band for the engineers.

So here's to the engineers.
Our Fifty-fifth engineers.
They're a snappy bunch of men,
And we'll hear of them again.
It's a sure thing—it's a sure thing
They'll fight for their land and you,
And they'll stay and see it through.
With a shovel and a pick,
They'll get Fritz so mighty quick,
He'll remember the engineers.

May 23, 1918.

Dear Mama and All:

One of your letters received today and was more than glad to hear from you again, and to know that you were all well. This leaves just fine and am in good health. I would have written sooner but have been in the trenches again and just came out yesterday. Everybody came out OK and nobody hurt.

We have been having some rain today and everything is muddy and bad.

I went to church today—in fact, I've been several times since we have been over here.

Tell Jim about the only thing that I see for him to do is to come over here or if he can't find him a girl there maybe he can here, for there are plenty of them in this town. Tell him he will have to learn to speak French.
Lieutenant Brown had a letter from his wife today. Said you were worried about not hearing from me.
When you fail to get a letter from me, when you are expecting one, don't be uneasy for the mail is delayed some time. Don't worry about me, if anything should happen to me you would be notified at once.

Had a moving picture at the Y. M.
C. A. last night—the second show I've seen since I've been over here.

I see Gessley every day and go after him about writing to his mother.
He told me today he had written her a letter.

Guess I had better stop for this time. Will write again in a day or so. I write two or three every week.
Write soon and all the news.

CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG
AT MASONIC SATURDAY

In "Shirley Kaye," Clara Kimball
Young, who will appear at the Masonic theatre next Saturday, plays the title role of a young society girl, queen of the Long Island set, who is suddenly plunged into the whirlpool of high finance by the threatening danger of her father's overthrow from the presidency of the Union Central R. R., which her forefather "Pirate" Kaye had founded. His two adversaries, T. J. Magen, a brusque Western financier, and his young associate John Rowson, she fights with different weapons—gaining the admiration of the first by the earnestness of her struggle on behalf of her own, and winning the love of the other, despite the fact that he "doesn't give a rap or any woman" especially Eastern ers.

At the same time she sponsors
Daisy, "T. J.'s" spoiled young daughter, and the apple of his eye, introducing her into society, for which he earns long; also she provides her with a devoted lover, Earl Rosselvin, thoroughly likable representative of the English nobility.

FALKVILLE RED CROSS.

In response to a request from Falk-ville Mr. J. D. Wyker appointed a committee from the Decatur Red Cross chapter to meet with the people of that enterprising and patriotic little town and assist in organizing them
as a branch of the Decatur chapter.
This committee left Decatur Friday afternoon, June 14, in automobiles and on reaching Falkville found the people assembled and ready for business.

The meeting was called to order by Rev. A. B. McDonald and after a few remarks in regard to the work of the temporary organization the meeting was turned over to J. D. Wyker, who made an impressive talk, emphasizing the importance and necessity of Red Cross work and assuring them that each member of the Decatur chapter stood ready and willing to assist and work with them in every way possible.

At the close of Mr. Wyker's talk Mrs. W. E. Crawford, field secretary took charge of the meeting and proceeded with organization. The following executive committee was elected: Rev. J. D. Kaylor, Miss Lily

Dinsmore, Rev. E. F. Corley, Mrs.
Harvey Drinkard, Dr. W. T. Stinger, J. F. Clark and Fred Wiley. After the above committee was elected they retired and elected their executive officers, who are: Rev. A. B. McDonald, chairman; Mrs. J. F. Clark, vice-chairman; Mrs. H. L. Huter, secretary, and Mrs. M. F. Patterson, treasurer. After the election of officers and all necessary requirements being met the chairman declared Falkville officially organized as a branch of the Decatur chapter, American Red Cross.

The Decatur chapter is very proud of her first branch chapter and stands ready at any time to render any assistance which they may need.

"A SPLENDID TONIC"

Says Hixson Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui
And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side..."

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition,
so I decided to try some more Cardui,
which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardui that cured me,
and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic.

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists.

Keep Faith With Your Boy "Over There"

When your boy was so little that all the world was a foreign country to him, he trusted you to take care of him.

You sent that boy to school and to play and on your little errands, and with implicit faith he did your bidding.

Now we have sent your boy or your neighbor's boy out into a foreign land, into terrors that we cannot even know—and his faith has not faltered. He knows we will do our part, and we know he will do his.

Are we keeping the faith? Are we scrimping and saving and giving to help our boys do the thing that humanity has asked of them, and to help them come back to us sane and whole?
